Police Enforcing Law Relating to Dodgers and Bills

Torrance police are enforcing the ordinance which requires payment of a fee by firms and individuals who have not taken out licenses to do business in Torrance but who distribute dodgers in the city. A merchant from a neighboring city was apprehended Monday in the act of distributing dodgers and was required to pay $10 fee as required in such cases. The ordinance stipulates that anyone not possessing a business license here must pay $10 a day for distributing dodgers or handbills.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hyde and family are enjoying a vacation at Big Bear.
